Instructions for Borrower

A person (including a financial institution, a governmental unit, and an educational institution) that receives interest payments of $600 or more during the year on one or more qualified student loans must furnish this statement to you.

You may be able to deduct student loan interest that you actually paid in 2004 on your income tax return. If your student loan was made before September 1, 2004, you may be able to deduct additional amounts, such as loan origination fees and capitalized interest, not reported on this statement. However, you may not be able to deduct the full amount of interest reported on this statement. Do not contact the recipient/lender for explanations of the requirements for (and how to figure) any allowable deduction for the interest paid. Instead, for more information see Pub. 970, Tax Benefits for Education, and “Student Loan Interest Deduction Worksheet” in your Form 1040 or 1040A instructions.

Box 1. Shows the interest received by the lender during the year on one or more student loans made to you.

Box 2. Shows if loan origination fees and/or capitalized interest are included in box 1.

Instructions for Recipients/Lenders

General and specific form instructions are provided as separate products. The products you should use to complete Form 1098-E are the 2004 General Instructions for Forms 1099, 1098, 5498, and W-2G, and the separate specific instructions, 2004 Instructions for Forms 1098-E and 1098-T. A chart in the general instructions gives a quick guide to which form must be filed to report a particular payment. To order these instructions and additional forms, call 1-800-TAX-FORM (1-800-829-3676).

Caution: Because paper forms are scanned during processing, you cannot file Forms 1096, 1098, 1099, or 5498 that you download and print from the IRS website.
