Instructions for Question 4:

- Enter enrollment mailing address (number and street, apartment, suite, or P.O. Box number, city, state, and ZIP code).
- The address you enter will be the address under which you are enrolled; it is the address where we send your correspondence concerning your enrollment.
- If your enrollment mailing address changes, you must promptly send us a written change of address. Your written change of address must include: your name; your old address; your new address; your social security number; the date; and your signature.
- Send your change of address to: IRS—Enterprise Computing Center, P.O. Box 33968 Detroit, MI 48232, Attn: EPP Unit
- Sending Form 8822, Change of Address, to the address specified on that form will change your address for tax purposes but will not change your enrollment mailing address (nor will sending Form 8822 to us change your address for tax purposes). However, you may, if you choose, send Form 8822 (original or copy) to us as your written change of address.
- Your enrollment mailing address is protected as confidential under the Privacy Act. If you choose to sign the Optional Privacy Act Consent to Public Disclosure of Enrollment Mailing Address, we may disclose your enrollment mailing address, with your name, to the general public by print or electronic media. Disclosures to the general public may include: mailing lists requested by individuals or organizations seeking to offer you goods or services; telephone contacts or correspondence with individual members of the public; and Websites.
- If you do not sign the Optional Privacy Act Consent to Public Disclosure of Enrollment Mailing Address, your enrollment mailing address will remain confidential. However, regardless of whether you sign such consent, if you are censured, suspended, disbarred or enjoined in connection with IRS practices, etc., the fact of such sanction is public information, and we may disclose the fact of suspension, or disbarment, with your name, city, and state (but not your street address) to the general public by print or electronic media.

SCHEDULE A (For use by former Internal Revenue Service employees only)

Instructions:

Complete Schedule A only if your enrollment application is based on former Internal Revenue Service employment. Include only qualifying employment. Section 10.4(b)(3) of Treasury Department Circular No. 230, provides that enrollment resulting from employment in the Internal Revenue Service may be of unlimited scope or may be limited to permit the presentation of matters only of the particular class or only before the particular unit or division of the Internal Revenue Service for which the former employment in the Internal Revenue Service has qualified the applicant. It shall be requisite for enrollment resulting from such employment that the applicant shall have had a minimum of 5 years continuous employment in the Internal Revenue Service and during such time was regularly engaged in applying and interpreting the provisions of the Internal Revenue Code and the regulations thereunder. Application for enrollment resulting from employment in the Internal Revenue Service must be made within 3 years from the date of separation from such employment. Attach a copy of your position description for the employment under which you are basing eligibility for enrollment. Also, please attach any information regarding formal education, training, licenses and work experience that would impact on the approval of your application for enrollment to practice before the IRS.

FORMER INTERNAL REVENUE SERVICE EMPLOYMENT INFORMATION

1. Enter your date of separation from employment with the Internal Revenue Service (MM/DD/YYYY): _____

Application for enrollment resulting from employment in the Internal Revenue Service must be made within 3 years from the date of separation from such employment.
