Your 2003
Federal Tax Return indicates you may be eligible for the

additional child
tax credit

The Additional Child Tax Credit may give you a refund even if you don't owe
any tax!

Here's everything you need to find out whether you're eligible, including the forms and where to mail them!

Who may receive the Additional Child Tax Credit?

People who have at least one qualifying child and received less than the full amount of the child tax credit.

Who is a qualifying child?

A child who:

- is your son, daughter, stepchild, adopted child, grandchild, or eligible foster child...and
- was under age 17 at the end of 2003...and
- is a citizen or resident of the United States...and
- is claimed as your dependent.

I meet all requirements. How do I claim my Additional Child Tax Credit?

Locate the amount, if any, on line 33 (child tax credit) of your completed Form 1040A. If you used Form 1040, find the amount on line 49. It's also on the child tax credit worksheet in the form instructions you used to calculate the credit.

Read the TIP at the end of your child tax credit worksheet in your Form 1040A or Form 1040 instructions you used to calculate the credit. If the TIP applies to you, complete the attached Form 8812 to see if you can take the additional credit.

Child Tax Credit Worksheet Instructions Form 1040A — Line 33

Keep for Your Records

Do not use this worksheet if you answered "Yes" to question 1 or 2 on page 37. Instead, use Pub. 972.

1. Number of qualifying children: _____ $1000.
Enter the result. 1

2. Enter the amount from Form 1040A, line 28. 2

3. Add the amounts from Form 1040A:
Line 29 _____
Line 30 + _____
Line 31 + _____
Line 32 + _____ Enter the total. 3

4. Are the amounts on lines 2 and 3 the same?
 Yes.
You cannot take this credit because there is no tax to reduce. However, you may be able to take the additional child tax credit. See the TIP below before completing the rest of your Form 1040A.
 No. Subtract line 3 from line 2. 4

5. Is the amount on line 1 more than the amount on line 4?
 Yes. Enter the amount from line 4.
Also, you may be able to take the additional child tax credit. See the TIP below.
 No. Enter the amount from line 1.
This is your child tax credit. 5

Enter this amount on Form 1040A, line 33.

You may be able to take the additional child tax credit on Form 1040A, line 42, if you answered "Yes" on line 4 or line 5 above.

- First, complete your Form 1040A through line 41.
- Then, use Form 8812 to figure any additional child tax credit.

If you have an additional credit on line 13 of the Form 8812 that you did not claim on the original form you filed, complete the attached Form 1040X and send it to us with the Form 8812 to receive the additional child tax credit.
